No drop offs

Alright, Cancer babe, pay close attention, because I have big news. On Thursday, July 12, the moon and sun join forces, electrifying the sky with a solar eclipse in your sign. But this isn't a one-off lunation: July's eclipse is the first eclipse in a powerful two-year cycle that will totally rock your world. Starting this month, the eclipses will begin illuminating the Cancer-Capricorn axis, fueling major changes in — well, every aspect of your life.

Spirituality will be in focus till the 23rd of the month of July 2018. You want to make amends for your spiritual failings and you are seeking divine intervention. Dreams and subconscious life are becoming active. Prayer and meditation will help you maintain mental stability. Philanthropic activities and humanitarian service will help you to get over your guilt.

IT DOES NOT HAVE TO BE THAT WAY!

With all the dislike, anger, hate, mistrust that is being thrown about like a dirty rag in the current day and age, what do you do to rid yourself, your family, your space from this heinous ooze? Me, I try to take time and meditate to feel, repair and reconnect with my own being. I know in daily life it is very hard to find time to stop, slow down or even get away for a minute or two. What I like to do is put aside a few minutes as I am getting ready for bed. Just sit on the edge of my bed or even lay down and focus on how I am feeling, physically, emotionally, spiritually; just feeling my own self to make sure I am all there. Checking to see if anything is out of place and after that I go over the things of the day—this happened, that happened, so forth and so on. Then I “throw away” anything that is not important, that does not need to be carried around, that I don't have to claim— get rid of it. And once you are able to do this exercise regularly you will begin to notice how much more energy you have to get to what you really want to do in your life.

If finding time at the beginning or end of your day does not seem to fit in your schedule, try incorporating the Sabbats. Draw upon the Pagan Holidays, use the energy of the season to help accomplish setting your life on the path you want not what society says it is.
